Numb. 1569

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday November 29. to Thursday December 2. 1680.

Cadiz, Nov 9.

FIve days ſince Sir John Berry in the Leopard ſailed from hence with the Smirna Ships and ſeveral other Merchanmen under his Convoy for England. And in three or four days Captain Killigrew in the Foreſight will Sail with ſeveral other Merchants Ships that were not ready to go with Sir John Berry.

Turin, Nov. 23. The 18 inſtant arrived here the Cardinal d' Eſtree from France in his way to Rome. The Marquis de Dronero whom our Duke is ſending his Ambaſſador to Portugall expects a French man of War at Nizza to tranſport him thither.

Warſaw, Nov. 8. The 4th inſtant arrived here Count Morſtein, Great Treſurer of the Crown from his Embaſſy in France, whither he was ſent, upon the proſpect there was of this Kingdoms engageing in a War jointly with the Moſcovites againſt the Turks, to deſire the aſſiſtance of the French King; what ſucceſs he has had in his Negotiation we cannot certainly ſay, but according to what appears it has not been ſuch, as may give this Crown any great encouragement to purſue the reſolutions it was thought were once taken, for the joyning with the Moſcovites in the ſaid War. There is now an Ambaſſador from the Cham of Tartary who comes to demand the payment of a Sum of Money which he pretends was promiſed upon the concluſion of the laſt peace with the Turks, to be paid him yearly. Our Ambaſſador is returning home from Moſcow, and when we conſider how deaf the Moſcovites have been to the propoſalls he made to them for the entring into a Defenſive and Offenſive Allyance, we may well believe that they have already concluded a peace with the Turks, or at leaſt have good aſſurances of doing it.

Stockholme, 13. Nov. The States Aſſembled here, having prayed the King more fully to declare himſelf upon the heads that were propoſed to them at the opening of their Aſſembly, his Majeſty in Anſwer thereunto has let them know, That he expects a Supply of 5 Millions of Crowns to be employed by him as the Exigencies of the State ſhall require; That he thinks it neceſſary to have a Navy of threeſcore and ten men of War, and a Land Army of as many thouſand men; beſides the forreign Troops he intends to raiſe for the ſtrengthning his frontier Garriſons: In order whereunto the States have called for an account of ſeveral great ſums of Money expended during the Kings minority from the perſons through whoſe hands it paſſed, who its believed will be found in great arrears. The Nobility offer a very conſiderable Sum of Money upon condition they may remain in the poſſeſſion of the Crown Lands which have been alienated by the Kings Predeceſſors.

Lintz, Nov. 26. Two days ſince arrived here an Expreſs from Hungary with advice that a Ceſſation of Arms had been again agreed between General Caprara who commands the Emperors Forces, and the Hungarian-Malecontents, and that it was hoped a peace would follow, in caſe the Emperor would conſent to ſome points concerning the ſecurity of their Religion which they chiefly inſiſt on. The new leavies that are making for the Emperour advance very well; and its ſaid that by Spring they will be finiſhed, and that if there be occaſion his Imperial Majeſtie will be able to bring a very great Army into the Field.

Ratisbonne, 23. Nov. The Dyet has received an anſwer from the Emperor to the reſolution of the three Colledges concerning the regulating the Moneys that are currant in the Empire, by which his Imperial Majeſty lets them know that he does not think fit to make any alteration therein in his Hereditary Countreys. The Circles of Franconia, Bavaria, and Suabia are now aſſembled at Ausburg to take ſome reſolution in this matter. The Dyet has repreſented to the Emperor the complaint made to them by the Elector of Cologne againſt the States General of the United Provinces, who continue to poſſeſs ſome places belonging to him in the Country of Liege, on account of contributions that are due to them.

Strasburg, Nov. 29. The French have ſet up ſeveral Cuſtom-Houſes on the Rhine, as at Seltz Rhinheim, Frieſenheim, and Germerſheim, which puts the Merchants into a great deal of pain, apprehending that great Impoſitions will be laid upon their Goods and Merchandizes that paſs that way. Two days ſince arrived here the Marquis de Seneville, who is going to the Emperors Court in the quality of Envoye Extraordinary from the French King, and in a day or two will continue his journey to Lintz. To morrow will be held a general Review of the French Dragoons in Alſace at Ober-Enſheim. The Duke of Hanover is paſſed through this City in his way to Italy.

Cologne Decemb. 3. The two Burgermaſters, who are priſoners, defend themſelves hitherto very well againſt the proſecution of the Burghers; the third, who made his eſcape and fled has been ſecured by order of the Duke of Juliers in his Territoryes and ſent hither; what iſſue this affair will have a ſhort time will now ſhew. In the mean time the Magiſtrates have propoſed to the Burghers, the raiſing of Soldiers to reinforce the Militia, but theſe have anſwered them with a complaint, that Moneys are wanting. Mr Bertie Envoy Extraordinary from the King of England is ſtill here, but will part from hence in a day or two; He goes to Coblentz, Mentz, and Heydelberg, and afterwards to Berlin.

Hamburg,